

ALESSANDRO ANTONIO GIUSTI

He was born in Prato, in 1950. He holds a degree in Economics from the University of Florence. He is a business consultant and operates in his office having seats in Prato, Florence and London.

He has been a member of the Council of Business Consultants Register of Prato as from 1988 to 1991, registered at the National Register of Statutory Auditors, and the Role of Arbitrators of Florence.

He is a technical consultant at the Court of Prato for business, corporate, and fiscal matters, and commercial and international law, and a consultant of the criminal judge. He is a financial companies inspector, a member of some technical commissions at the National Board of Business Consultants (the last commission was the one for small and medium companies), and a teacher for the Italian corporate law reform commission.

Mr. Giusti is Honorary General Consul of Tuscany and Marche to the Principality of Monaco in Florence. Moreover, he is an auditor in some companies, including listed companies, such as Toscana Finanza S.p.A.", "Fidicontrol S.p.A.", "Firenze Fiera S.p.A.", Associazione Industriali Pratesi, Armonia Sim S.p.A., President of the "Collegio dei Revisori della "Provincia di Prato", President of the Body of Statutory Auditors of "APT Firenze – Azienda per il Turismo di Firenze", and a consultant of many joint-venture companies.